

BOB DYLAN / THE BAND

(a collectors guide to the 74 Tour)

“There are two problems with the 1974 tour: the tapes are crap and Dylan’s performances are crap.” – C. Heylin, Telegraph 32 pg 86.

Introduction

This booklet / File (like the anonymous companion volume “Songs of the Underground” for RTR) is intended to document the audio resources available to collectors concerning the 1974 tour with the Band.

It is intended to supplement and possibly correct the three major resources available to collectors (Krogsgaard, Dundas & Olof’s files). Several PA tapes have emerged since Krogsgaard was last updated, and (I believe) there are errors in Dundas (concerning the PA tapes from 11 Feb 1974) that I wished to address. Additionally, none of these references (except for one full listing in Krogsgaard) include the Band sets. While details are difficult to obtain, I have included details of about three-quarters of the Band sets. It is hoped that readers on the web may contribute more information. I believe that the Band was a significant contributor to the 1974 Tour and should be included in any 1974 Tour documentation.

I have also identified the sources for the Vinyl and CD bootlegs, where my resources allowed. Often the attributions on Bootlegs are misleading, incomplete or wrong. As an example ‘Before and After the Flood’ claims to be from MSG NYC 30.1.1974 when it is actually a combination of the PA tapes from 31.1.74 (evening) and 11.2.74 (evening).

This file is free to download and print. This file may be distributed freely.

My thanks to Bob Meyer, Craig Pinkerton and to Karl Erik Anderson.

Note: There is confusion between the Afternoon and Evening shows for 11th Feb. Dundas, Isis, Olof and The Bridge have them reversed. Krogsgaard (since the second edition) has them correctly identified. They can be correctly identified from the contemporary booklet 'One Foot on the Highway' by Bill Yenne. On page 26 when he is discussing these shows he says 'One of the most moving moments of the early San Francisco show was Dylan, alone on acoustic guitar for The Lonesome Death of Hattie Carroll. ' Additionally, there is confirmation from Dylan's comments, or rather lack of comments from this show. There are no comments at this show. 'Thank you. Back in San Francisco at last ' occurred at the late show, and NOT at the early show.

In 'Bob Dylan Approximately' – Stephen Pickering on pg. 157, there is a quote for the 10:30pm show: "Thank you! Great to be back in San Francisco Bay!"(sic) Although Pickering has misheard it slightly, there is no doubt about the quote or the show.*

This official release is a poor approximation of the 1974 sets. Not only is it selected from the end of the tour where Dylan is 'shouting' the songs at 'breakneck' speed; it also has some of the songs in totally the wrong place. For example Knockin' on Heaven's Door was never played in the first set. The Dylan / Band set that occurred between the Band set and the Dylan solo set is not evident at all. The Band sets are a mess as well; Endless Highway is from the second Band set, but here placed in the first set and When You Awake has been moved from the first set to the second set. The order in the Bands sets is inexplicable as well. In every Band set known, they opened with Stage Fright, but here it is the closer of the first set, whereas almost every opening Band set finished with Up on Cripple Creek, here it is the opening number!

Tracks 22-28 from 11th Feb (evening) circulated for some years as a partial PA tape<sup>1</sup>. The emergence of the complete PA tape from 11th Feb (evening) almost renders this earlier tape redundant. (The Shape I'm in is still incomplete, but longer on the earlier tape). Tracks 24-28 from 31 Jan (evening) are on a newly emerged tape.

Tracks 1, 5, 7 - 8, 10 -11, 23 – 25 from 14 Feb (evening), tracks 2, 4, 11 & 19 from 14 Feb (afternoon) as well as track 16 from 13 Feb exist in two different mixes as they are both on the Before the Flood (official release) and Before the Flood rough mix tape.

When you Awake	9	8	8	8	6	8	8	8		8	8		8	8
The Shape I'm In	8	9	9	9	7	9	9	9		9	9	9	9	9	8
The Weight	11	10	10	10	8	10	10	10		10	10	10	10	10	9

Apart from the first show (3rd Jan), these first sets are similar. Between the 6th and 10th Long Black Veil was replaced by Loving You Is Sweeter Than Ever and then by This Wheels on Fire. Later Loving You Is Sweeter Than Ever sometimes replaces When you Awake in the second set. The 19th is a shorter set with The Night they Drove Old Dixie Down missed out.

(1 st Set) January / February	19	21	22	23	25	26	26	28	29	30	31	31	2	3	4
Stage Fright	1	1		1	1	1		1	1		1	1	1	1
The Night they Drove Old Dixie Down	2	2		2	2	2		2	2		2	2	2	2
King Harvest (has surely come)	3	3			3	?		3	3	3	3	3	3	3
Goin' to Memphis				3
When You Awake	4	4		4	4	?		4	4		4	4	4	4
I Shall be Released	5	5		5	5	?		5	5					5
Up on Cripple Creek	6	6		6		6		6			5	5	5	6

(2 nd Set) January / February	19	21	22	23	25	26	26	28	29	30	31	31	2	3	4
Rag Mama Rag	7	7		7	6	?		7	6		6	6	6	7
This Wheels on Fire	8	9		8	7	?		8	7		7	7	7	8
The Shape I'm In	9	8		9	8	?		9	8		8	8	8	9
The Weight	10	10		10	?	10		10	9		9	?	9	10

Apart from the 'one-off' Goin' to Memphis for Memphis, these sets show little variation. The second set has no variation and is now only four songs, and the total songs played by the Band is less. On the 19th This Wheels on Fire has swapped with When You Awake. The Band sets remain in this format with little variation till the end of the tour.

(1 st Set) February	4	6	6	9	9	11	11	13	14	14
Stage Fright		1		1	1		1		1	1
The Night they Drove Old Dixie Down		2		2	2		2		2	2
King Harvest (has surely come)		3		3	3		3		3	?
When You Awake		4		4	4		4	4	4	4
I Shall be Released		5							5
Up on Cripple Creek		6		5	5		5	5	6	5

(2 nd ) February	4	6	6	9	9	11	11	13	14	14
Rag Mama Rag		7		6	6		6		7	6
Endless Highway										7
This Wheels on Fire		8		7	7		7		8
The Shape I'm In		9		8	8		8		9	8
The Weight		10		9	9		9	9	10	9

Endless Highway makes a singular appearance in the final show. I Shall be Released is only performed twice in this group. The second band set remains at four songs. While it is tempting to guess the band sets that were played where no details are shown, it is still highly likely that the band would perform a different song or two at the undocumented dates. Until we have hard evidence of the 'missing' songs it is best that they remain blank.

To quote Paul Cable in 'Bob Dylan – His Unreleased Recordings' pg 105.

'The matter is complicated by the famous but elusive White Bear Albums – eighteen doubles released within six weeks of each concert respectively and each only available, at least initially, in the surrounding area of the concert from which it was taken. As opposed to all the other '74 tour bootlegs, all the White Bear Albums are reputed to be mastered from tapes recorded direct from the P. A. systems. I have never actually seen or heard a copy of a White Bear Album but I understand the sound quality is second only to the official album, though still leaves a margin of doubt as to whether it was mastered from the P. A. or audience recordings. Either way, it is strange that, given the organisation that must have been required to mount such a massive and efficient operation, there does not seem to have been any real attempt to export the albums. Just who, one wonders, are the people behind White Bear'

The myth was further spread in Bob Dylan: an Illustrated discography – Hoggard & Shields pg 89

In addition to the six million people who wanted to see Dylan, the bootleggers were out in force as never before seen in the history of popular music, covering at least 13 cities, taking their tapes directly from the PA. One company White Bear Label, issued no less than 18 albums of the tour, and had their organisation so together that the albums were only released in the area of the actual gigs. Adding insult to injury they even advertised where they were going to record as soon as the itinerary was announced.

The myth was finally exposed by Dominique Roques – the Great White Answers pg 89

Finally, everyone has heard about the "White Bear" albums; it had been rumored since 1974 that the "White Bear" label had released 14 or 16 double albums from this tour, all made from PA tapes.... The only trouble with these magnificent albums is that no one has ever seen or touched or heard one of them! Most likely, this must have been a project that failed, if not simply some kind of joke...
